

BEFORE THE
SHORELINES HEARINGS BOARD
STATE OF WASHINGTON

IN THE MATTER OF A SHORELINE
SUBSTANTIAL DEVELOPMENT PERMIT DENIED BY CHELAN COUNTY TO McCLOSKY'S COVE MARINA,

McCLOSKY'S COVE MARINA,
Appellant,

v.

CHELAN COUNTY,

Respondent.

SHB No. 82-16

ORDER DISMISSING
REQUEST FOR REVIEW

This matter was set for hearing before the Shorelines Hearings Board commencing at 10:00 a.m., on November 23, 1982, in Lacey, Washington. Members David Akana (presiding), Gayle Rothrock, Chairman, Larry Faulk and Nancy Burnett were present.

Appellant McClosky's Cove Marina (Virgil McClosky) did not appear; Respondent Chelan County did not appear.

The file in this matter contains a certificate showing that the notice of the date, time and place of hearing was mailed to both parties on June 25, 1982.

The file also contains notes of telephone conversations on November 22, 1982, with Virgil McClosky and E.R. Whitmore, prosecuting attorney, and the presiding officer. Each party indicated an intent not to attend the Board's scheduled hearing on Chelan County's denial of substantial development permit application No. N 500-14-0659 because another separate application was made by appellant and permit granted by respondent.

Appellant having the burden of proof in this matter and having failed to appear for hearing, NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with WAC 461-08-160(3)

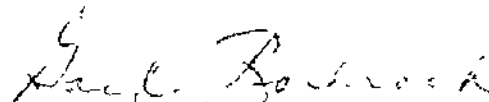

IT IS ORDERED that appellant's appeal on application No. N 500-14-0659 be and hereby is dismissed.

DONE this 23rd day of November, 1982.
